

Nehemiah Gateway News

Nuremberg, January 2014

Dear Friends of Nehemiah Gateway,

we held a touching worship in memory of Alfred Wenig, who died unexpectedly five years ago. He was convinced by our work from the beginning and supported us exceptionally. Without him, we would not be in the position we are today and our projects would only be partially in place, but through him we are now able to help many people in many countries around the world. ...more...

Best wishes from Nuremberg – your Nehemiah Gateway Team and Anja Römer-Zwacknagl!

Meeting with Vanessa Machowetz

The daughter of the late founder of the Vanessa Secondary School in Mbeya, Tanzania, will participate in the project herself in the future. We met her recently for the first time in Berlin and are very excited about this particular support!

...more...

Visit of the Ambassador of Nicaragua

We had the honor to welcome the Ambassador of Nicaragua in our Nuremberg offices and to present our projects. The Ambassador was very impressed by all projects, and especially, of course, by our work in Nicaragua! ...more...

New Year's Concert for Vanessa Secondary School

The net proceeds of the concert of the "Silver Strings" this year went to the Vanessa Secondary School. This will give the children from the surrounding villages a possibility to school access. The audience heard about the school and showed great interest.

... more ...

We continue to grow

Since the beginning of the year we have new support in our Berlin office: Friederike Fritsch now takes care of fundraising and the coordination of office organization and reporting about our "Berlin affairs".

Welcome to the team, Friederike!

...more...